

Won't Change

Frankie J

i was young i was dumb didn't know wha i was thinking use to think that i could rule the world thats the way...i be living fast cars always shoping at the malls never caring for your heart always with my friend yeah..

till you came along
and opened up my eyes
you asked me wha was goin on seemed that i had changed inside...oh my
said i was triping
and slowly I was slipping in another bad situation
and i said to myself
i dont wanna go that route cuz i dont wanna loose you babe you know that im still down

i dont wanna loose you babe just keep me on the ground
you know that i wont change cuz for u i'll do anythang and everythang you know that i wont change a thang you're my moon,you're my sun you're my stars you are my everythang and im sorry if i havent made you feel that way...ok... i've been a fool i know its true and i gotta make it....up to you babe i gotta show you that i still acknowledge you...

and slowly slipping
and i said to myself
i dont wanan go that route

you know that i wont change

o0oh

i love you more than anything

for you i wont change a thang

girl you know im still the same cuz i'll always be there for you and you'll always be there for me yeah oh yeah

you know that i wont change babe yeah

Lets go..from the the start of it all you were there for me

before the range and the benz before everythang uh memba those nights...

no lights no food on the stove just me just you and a baby to hold whooh

and now you saying me and you that we strayed away

and that we havent been the same

since the money came but the money means nothing if i dont have you...uh uh to support and back me in everythang that i do... cuz if you aint there then why am i here...tell her please understand that i care...uh
