

You've Changed

Frankie Laine

That sparkle in your eye is gone
Your smile is just a careless yawn
You're breaking my heart
You're kisses now are so blasé
You're bored with me in every way
I can't understand
You've forgotten the words 'I love you'
Each memory that we've shared
You ignore every star above you
I can't realize you've ever cared
You're not the angel I once knew
No need to tell me that we're through
It's all over now
