

Cake

Frankmusik

I keep moving Now I'm choosing anything that's better than the repetition of events that I remember with you, with you I was just a fella scream and shouting moving mountains putting my own dreams on hold so you could feel you counted to you counted to walk 10 years in my shoes see my fears before you listen to those fools just walk 10 years in my shoes

see my fears before you listen to those fools

just another cliché stereo type of a little thing called love you can never get right you can't have your cake and eat it too you be the mountain I'll be the water
just another lamb that's sent to the slaughter
you can't have your cake and eat it too

you can't have your cake
you can't have your cake and eat it too
you can't have your cake
you can't have your cake
you can't have your cake and eat it too

I'm sorry that the story that we started only started when we actually departed and we went our separate ways finding brighter days but don't you notify me of the man that you will find and co-dependently be living off like you didn't have a choice when you had a voice
walk 10 years in my shoes
see my fears before you listen to those fools
just walk 10 years in my shoes
see my fears before you listen to those fools

just another cliché stereo type
of a little thing called love
you can never get right
you can't have your cake and eat it too
you be the mountain
I'll be the water
just another lamb that's sent to the slaughter
you can't have your cake and eat it too

you can't have your cake
you can't have your cake and eat it too
you can't have your cake
you can't have your cake
you can't have your cake and eat it too

just another cliché stereo type
of a little thing called love
you can never get right
you can't have your cake and eat it too
you be the mountain
I'll be the water
just another lamb that's sent to the slaughter
you can't have your cake and eat it too
you can't have your cake and eat it too
can't have your cake and eat it too cake and eat it too
you can't have your cake and eat it too
can't have your cake and eat it too
cake and eat it too