

Misdemeanor

Frankmusik

You met me on the up well
Thats what we thought it was
Who am I kidding now I'm just surfing sofas solo now and
I got a fateful past thats biting me in the ass yeah
Too many people ready to see me fall and crumble now
I try to keep it from you
With my stupid pride
And the culmination of a few white lies
But it isn't working
I've just compromised
The only thing worth fighting for

And oh its just a misdemeanor in my heart
And I wish I could of told you from the start
Its just a misdemeanor in my heart

Piccadilly circus scenes your
Try'n ruin us in the streets yeah
I wish you wouldn't live by
Every single word
You use to make me scream and
Happiness a state of mind that
I can never seem to find now
Thirties approaching
My hearts encroaching
On the better times
I'm caught up in nostalgia
Where my youth has gone
And the future is a place I feel I don't belong and
I try to keep it simple
Or just compromise
The only thing worth fighting for

And oh its just a misdemeanor in my heart
And I wish I could of told you from the start
Its just a misdemeanor in my heart
Wooh [x8]
Oh its just a misdemeanor in my heart
And I wish I could of told you from the start
Its just a misdemeanor in my heart
Yeah yeah

You met me on the low well
I'm broke and now you know and I wish I wasn't kidding now I'm just surfing sofas solo now and
I got a fateful past thats biting me in the ass yeah
Too many people ready to see me fall and crumble now

Oh its just a misdemeanor in my heart
And I wish I could of told you from the start
Its just a misdemeanor in my heart
And oh its just a misdemeanor in my heart
And I wish I could of told you from the start
Its just a misdemeanor in my heart
Yeah yeah
Oh oh oh
Its just a misdemeanor in my heart

Oh oh
And I wish I could of told you from the start
Yeah [x6]
Oh its just a misdemeanor in my heart
And I wish I could of told you from the start
Just a misdemeanor in my heart
Yeah yeah yeah
Oh
And I wish I could of told you from the start
Yeah, Yeah, Yeah, Yeah, Yeah
Oh
And I wish I could of told you from the start
Just a misdemeanor in my heart
