

Stabilizher

Frankmusik

When I came into this my arms were open wide
But all my friends would say I better run and hide
Cos now I feel your feet
They're walking over me
But you don't even think you're doing wrong
With all the failed expectations time and time again
Not so quickly have I wanted things to end
It may have started started well
But you are not not not the girl
You tricked me into thinking you once were
Nothing ventured nothing gained
Now she don't wanna know my name
But helping you just brought pain
Yeah I can't believe I lost again I lost again

Hey why'd I go and stabilize ya
Hey cos now your ok I can't find
Hey why'd I go and stabilize ya
Now she don't need me like she did just yesterday

And though its over you still run around my head
I swallowed all my pride to be your friend instead
But now I realize that that was my demise
My compassion was your safety net
Now the biggest thing I didn't want to see
I was not plan a and barely your plan b
But now you built your bridge
I'm the water under it
One less obstacle thats in your way

Nothing ventured nothing gained
Now she don't want to know my name
But helping you just brought pain
Yeah I can't believe I lost again I lost again

Hey why'd I go and stabilize ya
Hey cos now your ok I can't find ya
Hey why'd I go and stabilize ya
Now she don't need me like she did just yesterday

Hey stabilize ya
Why did I hey stabilize ya
Why did I hey stabilize her hey
Cos you don't need me like you did just yesterday

Oh so you're in the mood for sharing what you like to call good news
Or were you only tryna reach me just for any old excuse
Must be a wonderful existence when you don't care what you loose
Well I can't have you walk in and out of mine just when you choose

Hey why'd I go and stabilize ya
Hey cos now your ok I can't find
Hey why'd I go and stabilize ya
Cos you don't need me like you did just yesterday

Hey why'd I go and stabilize ya
Cos now your ok I can't find

Hey why'd I go and stabilize ya
Cos you don't need me like you did just yesterday

Now you're ok now you're ok
You don't need me you don't need me like you did just only yesterday
But I ain't okay I ain't okay
Took your stabilizers off and now I'm just a distant memory

Stabilize ya
Why did I hey stabilize ya
Why did I hey stabilize ya
Hey cos you don't need me like you did just yesterday
