

Right Action

Franz Ferdinand

I come home, practically all is nearly forgiven
Right thoughts, right plans, right action
Almost everything could be forgotten

How can we leave you to a Saturday night
On a Sunday morning, good morning

But sometimes, wish you were here, weather permitting
This time, same as before, I'll love you forever

How can we leave you to a Saturday night
On a Sunday morning, good morning

Sometimes, wish you were here, weather permitting
Right thoughts, right á¹-lans, right action
Right now
