

I'm Not Going

Freak Kitchen

"Irm Not Going" is one of those songs that never gets the Final touch, lyric-, arrange- or melody-wise. It has a Quite groovy, pseudo bluesy 9/8 riff which might be used In future tunes, we'll see...

The lyrics are pure bullocks and have no point What'soever. There are even some meaningless Swedish words And sentences thrown in here and there. Ia simply didn't Have anything written down except for the chorus which Goes like:

"Hey, better be on your way
Irm not going"

Nevertheless, it's always fun to hear stuff in it's very Raw form. Hope you appreciate it.
