

Spookin' The Horses

Fred Eaglesmith

You're spookin' the horses
They're wild and they're scared
That bright coloured makeup
Those clothes that you wear
And I've seen you dancin' last night 'neath the tree
You're spookin' the horses
And you're scarin' me
Where the road meets the highway
Those bright city lights
Must have shone through your windshield
And got into your eyes
And I guess you thought
That they'd set you free
You're spookin' the horses
And you're scarin' me
You're not tying your hair back anymore
And you're wearing dresses
Like you never before
And you're driving faster
Than I've ever seen
You're spookin' the horses
And you're scarin' me
I can hear the gears grinding
When you make the turn
And up on the skyline
Those headlights just burn
And the horses go runnin'
And my heart just screams
You're spookin' the horses
And you're scarin' me
You're spookin' the horses
And you're scarin' me
