

My Hang-Up Is You

Freddie Hart

Everybody's got one baby my hang-up is you

Everybody's got one the hang-up of some kind

Call it habit or call it weakness thank goodness I've got mine

The wanting the craving the needing keeps my world from crawling through

Everybody's got one baby my hang-up is you

I've hung up all the thrills I feel when I hold you in my arms

I'm hung up because I need your love to wrap around and keep me warm

You're my little piece of heaven you're all I've got to hang on to

Everybody's got one baby my hang-up is you
