What Took You So Long

Freddie Hart

I can't stand you out of my side say what took you so long Since you been all night what took you so long I've lost my mind a dozen times since you left me alone And you been gone at least a minute what took you so long

Have you seen a baby sparrow fall helpless to the ground Unable to fly back and afraid to be found Well that's me that's me without you whenever you are gone And you been gone at least a minute what took you so long

Have you seen a baby sparrow
