

Irreplaceable

Fredrika Stahl

i want to be remembered as "one of a kind" unique and why not "out of her mind" i want to be special, unpredictable and absurd i want to tell people the most aberrant things they've heard i want to have an eye-catching, distinctive look i want to have all the loonies on the hook i want to do everything without moderation without a single thought or consideration cause i, you, them

what wouldn't we do to be
irreplaceable?

none of my partners introduced me their folks afraid that i might pull off some awkward jokes and once we've split up they would always say that i'm not a girl to marry anyway cause i like to complain and i love to start fights i always leave out the milk and never turn off the lights i don't change the bin bag event though it's packed i just jam in the trash until the bag is cracked

cause i, you, them
what wouldn't we do to be
irreplaceable?
