I'm sorry, think you misunderstood
I'm harsh and rude but my intentions are good
I'm not mean, don't meant to call you names, no, no
To pick fights and gave you sleepless night

Yes babe what I'm trying to say
Is that I'm showing my love
In my own special way
Yes babe this is how I play
I'm showing my love
In my own special way

Pardon me if I seem a bit cold
For the constant rejection of your love and affection
Don't wanna be taken for granted you see
Oh I preserved my heart, now deserve my heart

Yes babe what I'm trying to say
Is that I'm showing my love
In my own special way
Yes babe this is how I play
I'm showing my love
In my own special way

I'm sorry hope you know I am
But you can't just love when loving a man

Yes babe what I'm trying to say
Is that I'm showing my love
In my own special way
Yes babe this is how I play
I'm showing my love
In my own special way

Yes babe what I'm trying to say
Is that I'm showing my love
In my own special way
Yes babe this is how I play
I'm showing my love
In my own special way
