

Sweep Me Away

Fredrika Stahl

Never thought I would say these words,
But this was beyond my control
My fingers were itching,
But my hands too small..
Once steady on my feet feet
Now sinking through the mud
I'm looking at the stars stars
While awaiting the flood

Never thought I would say these words
But I might have got it wrong
There's a hole in my mind
No more answers to find..
Once fighting that calm calm,
Now cooling down my blood
I'm looking at the stars stars
While awaiting the flood

Sweep me away...
Sweep me away...

Sweep me away...
Sweep me away...
Sweep me away...
Sweep me away...

Once steady on my feet feet
Now sinking through the mud
I'm looking at the stars
While awaiting the flood
