

We Are Whole

Fredrika Stahl

Closer I will need you more than that
I will need you more than ever
Now the wind has changed
The page has turned
And the previous chapters burned

Closer I hold on to you, hold on to me
Let's lie in bed and shape our memories
We can reset
We can reborn
Let the wind rise up to storm
Change's coming up
Forget all we knew
Empty our cups
Fill them up up with something new
Open your eyes and you will see

We are whole now
We are crystalized
We are whole now
I'll follow you through time
We are whole now
We are crystalized
Inhale my soul

Slowly sliding donw the rabbit hole
Collecting images to map our souls
Clear our heads switch our names
Hit us hard with change
Good will arise
Time will right the wrongs
Empty our cups
Fill them up with something strong
Open our minds and redesign
