Sail On

Sail on my brother Sail on through the night Sail on my sister Sail on through the night

Beautiful as the day is long Beautiful as the day is long

Sail on your troubles Sail on through your doubts Sail on your worries Sail on soon you'll work it out

I've always been a believer In the good things of life But they don't all come wrapped in cellophane And they don't always seem to turn out right They don't always seen to turn out right

I've always been a believer In the good things of life But they don't all come wrapped in cellophane And they don't always seem to turn out right No, no, no, They don't always seen to turn out right Sometimes they do not Humm.... sail on.
