Heart of the rainbow

Freedom Call

Somewhere in desert land
The valley of the graves
All you have to find there is
The gate within the cave

The garden of your darkest fears A place of no return You're bound to face your destiny Fires of hope still burn

Arise - God can't you hear my cry
I'm alive - calling your mighty name
Save me from sadness

Whispers in the moonlight
I can hear their shadows crawl
Rising up from down below
The ghosts of Phantakor
Creatures of the underworld
They try to catch my soul
And try to seal my fate

A flight to the heart of the rainbow I'm searching the eyes of the world Deep in the land of the shadows I'm awaiting the end of the game

The lord of Darkness is trying to poison my mind

Believe in your heart and you will see It's not the place to die Don't hestitate, no time to wait The days are passing by

Arise - God can't you hear my cry
I' m alive - calling your mighty name
I'm reaching for glory
