

Lay down by your fire...
come back home tonight,
Turn into the tide,
spill out your enzymes...
We learned how to swim,
Just enough to float,
Further than you think,
It's closer than the way back home.

So gracious of you to take time,
But I can't show you.
Our legs can't glisten
while we sink now lets get home
So gracious of you to take time,
But I can't show you.
Our legs can't glisten
while we sink now lets get home.

Stolen aren't you high,
Lights under our eyes
Soon it will ignite,
spill out your enzymes.

So gracious of you to take time,
But I can't show you.
our legs can't glisten
while we sink now lets get home
So gracious of you to take time,
But I can't show you.
Our legs can't glisten
while we sink now lets get home.
