

Hard to Stay

Freestylers

I offer you reality. You've got to stand tall and demand your rights. Nobody's going to give you a damn thing.

Loving you was hard at the best of times Walking on them egg shells and tryin to read your mind. Aint it a shame life can be so unkind? Your reward aint enough for this kinda over time. Can't take no more of the wicked ways. Packed up my love and I'm leavin you today. Aint got no faith in you meetin me half way. You won't know what you've had till you see it walk away.

You're makin it hard for me, can't live in this fantasy. You're makin it hard, hard for me to stay.

Leavin you's the best thing I've ever done. Feelin kinda free now my life has just begun. Doin it my way and headin for the sun or bein caged in your arms, there aint no comparison. I'm not holdin off for nobody new. Don't worry honey I can handle solitude. I know you don't think I'll make it without you. You got so much to learn baby head on back to school.

You're makin it hard for me, can't live in this fantasy. You're makin it hard, hard for me to stay.

You can't lie awake Out of this one day You're makin it hard for me, can't live in this fantasy You're makin it hard I can't take no more Walkin out the door You're making it hard for me, So hard for me to stay Makin it so hard for me to stay. I just can't stay I'm leavin today.
