

Doppelgänger

Freezpop

I was out / with a friend
Trying to put the past to bed
'Cross the room, I saw you
With a girl who's looking weirdly familiar, familiar

Strange seeing your twin in the bathroom, yeah, yeah
When you didn't even know you had one

She looks like me, she looks just like me
Why don't you see it
She dances like me, dances just like me
Why don't you see it

Introduced me to her
But I never really got her name
Guess it's all just a blur
When you're looking in a mirror at midnight, at midnight

Strange seeing your twin in the bathroom, yeah, yeah
When you didn't even know you had one

She looks like me, she looks just like me
Why don't you see it
She dances like me, dances just like me
Why don't you see it

She looks like me, she looks just like me
Why don't you see it
She dances like me, dances just like me
Why don't you see it

You see it
You see it

So I see your smile
I know it was no accident
There is no denial
I kinda wish I'd thought of it first

She looks like me, she looks just like me
Why don't you see it
She dances like me, dances just like me
Why don't you see it

You see it
Why don't you see it
Why don't you see it
Why don't you see it
