Tender Lies

Freezepop

Yeah, i am blinded by your smiles yeah, i would follow you for miles your profile, ooh it shines so bright yeah, you are in my heart tonight, tonight tender lies, keep telling me tender lies keep feeding me bedroom eyes and your tender lies your features couldn't be more right there in the silver light tonight i know i shouldn't stay too long 'cause everything, it will go wrong, go wrong tender lies, keep telling me tender lies keep feeding me bedroom eyes and your tender lies tender lies, keep telling me tender lies keep feeding me bedroom eyes and your tender lies would that you loved me tell me you want me would that you loved me tell me you want me i lie awake and think of you hoping that my dream will come true i want to have you for my own don't leave me waiting all alone, alone
