I feel, I'm askin', I'm askin' first and foremost, guys, I'm askin'
Haven't I given to this culture?
Will there be you without me
Did I not deserve this, did I not deserve this? Did I not show you?
How to ball?
Did I not muthauckin' go to war for us?

First billion dollar bitch from California
First brick came from Arizona
First slang came from the corner
First chain, nigga had to pawn it
My first pot, man you wouldn't pee in

That's hard, that's gon' be hard to do
Cause first of all, some gettin' too much money out here doin' too many things
I need some shit that'll grab their attention niggas, and love right away
