Most Beautiful

Frente!

Wide open eye You serious? You delirious? Kissing chaos Have you got a heart?

You could really lose it in the Super-People-Mart
You're the most beautiful thing I know And the most beautiful thing is
When I hear your heart beat

Will human be dumb and free Or some amazing catastrophe? Never too scared to bare To care to running to the riot

Where the moment meets
The most beautiful thing I know
And the most beautiful thing
Something new, I dunno why?

I know all there is, I know Where is your how?
Holding up your frown
A prop to stop you smiling now

Heaven or the heather
Or the miracles of weather
But you listen to
The most beautiful thing I know

And the most beautiful thing, darling Is where you hear your heart Beat is, when I hear your heart
