

Richer Than You

Frenzal Rhomb

I don't care, if you're bored and all alone
It's 'cause you can't afford to buy some friends
Or speak by mobile phone

If you're wondering why everybody is stepping on your face
It's 'cause you don't have any money
And you've been put in you're place

So, why don't you get down on your knees
I'm richer than you
Why don't you get down on your knees
I'm richer than you

Why don't you get down on your knees?
I'm richer than you
Why don't you get down on your knees?
I'm richer than you, yeah

I don't care if you're falling all over the place
Because we just can't stick around you
And there's someone in your face

You're listening to everybode singing in dial tone
You don't have time to wait around
That's why you're all alone

So, why don't you get down on your knees
I'm richer than you
Why don't you get down on your knees
I'm richer than you

Why don't you get down on your knees?
I'm richer than you
Why don't you get down on your knees?
I'm richer than you, yeah

I'm richer than you

I don't care, if you're bored and all alone
It's 'cause you can't afford to buy some friends
Or speak by mobile phone

If you're wondering why everybody is stepping on your face
It's 'cause you don't have any money
And you've been put in you're place

So, why don't you get down on your knees
I'm richer than you
Why don't you get down on your knees
I'm richer than you

Why don't you get down on your knees
I'm richer than you
Why don't you get down on your knees
I'm richer than, richer than, richer than you
