

You read to me from the riot act
Way on high
Clutching a crisp new testament
Breathing fire

Spare me the fake benevolence
I don't have time
I'm just too far gone for a telling
I've lost my pride

I don't mind being lonely
Leave me alone
You're acting all holy
Me, I'm just full of holes

I could dip my head in the river
Cleanse my soul
I'd still have the stomach of a sinner
Face like an un-holy ghost

Spare me all the soliloquies
I've paid my fines
And I'll be gone before my deliverance
So preach what you like

I don't mind being lonely
Leave me alone
You're acting all holy
Me, I'm just full of holes

Don't mind being lonely
Spare me the brimstone
Acting all holy
When you know I'm full of holes

Don't mind being lonely
Don't need to be told
Stop acting all holy
I know I'm full of holes

I don't mind being lonely
Leave me alone
You're oh so holy
And I'll never be good enough

Don't care if I'm lonely
It feels like home
And I'll never be holy
Thank God I'm full of holes
