

Every Second

From Ashes to New

I'm Broken
I'm Hoping
For a reason to keep on going
Doors open and closing
Everything seems like slow motion
I've chosen this moment
To stop my self erosion
I'm focused alone
Myself my own opponent
But in this the moment thats falling apart
I keep Thinking
Is this the path i chose and where i should start
I keep sinking
I'm dying every second im alive
Every second im alive
IM trying to be the fire thats inside me
the fire thats inside
Im dying every second im alive
This life's reflection in my eyes
It reminds me the scars make me stronger
I wont go quietly
Wont let the past confine me
I dont know why i see
World trying to put behind me
But in this the moment thats falling apart
I keep Thinking
Is this the path I chose and where i should start
I keep sinking
I'm dying every second im alive
Every second im alive
IM trying to be the fire thats inside me
the fire thats inside
Im dying every second im alive
This life's reflection in my eyes
It reminds me the scars make me stronger

Every second im alive
Im getting closer to my grave
I try my best to just survive
Feels like im broken everyday
Im hoping that i make it
Im hoping but i fake it
I close the inside the space be time to try and fight the shaking Im shaking and awaiting Still debating on which way to go
Im swaying and a fading no escape still afraid to know
Inside my thoughts are racing so i brace and for a way to stone
The world is on my shoulders that i may just have to change alone
I'm dying every second im alive
Every second im alive
IM trying to be the fire thats inside me
the fire thats inside
Im dying every second im alive
This life's reflection in my eyes
It reminds me the scars make me stronger
