

You Only Die Once

From Ashes to New

What would you live for what would you lie for
What would you kill for what would you die for

Name something in life you might think twice to die for No matter if it's right you take a knife and say goodbye for Out the lights and say goodnight like nothings left to try for
Out of mind and out of sight decide to close your eyes for
Can you be so sure it's worth it
Nothing anymore is perfect
What's it for if you're uncertain
Doors don't open closing curtains
Nothing more no returning
No re-spawn no reinsertion
No 2.0 no new version
Only you your only person

What would you live for what would you lie for
Better hope you find it was, everything inside you love
What would you kill for what would you die for
Better make your mind up cuz you only die once

It rips apart your heart it's hard to keep it underneath
Losing sight of who you are discarding life it seems Push yourself so far it starts to alter what it means
You live to breathe you kill for dreams you die for something no one sees What's it take to make you kill
And go insane against your will Makes you change the way you feel
For what is fake and what's for real
You've been placed in this ordeal
To sit and wait or take the wheel
The choice you make won't fade until
You soak up all the blood you spilled

What would you live for what would you lie for
Better hope you find it was, everything inside you love
What would you kill for what would you die for
Better make your mind up cuz you only die once

What if it kills you
What if you die
What if you don't make it out alive

What if it kills you
What if you die
What if you don't make it out alive

You only die once
You only die once
You only die once
You only die once

What would you live for what would you lie for
What would you kill for what would you die for
What would you live for what would you lie for
Better hope you find it was, everything inside you love

What would you kill for what would you die for
Better make your mind up cuz you only die once

You only die once
You only die once
You only die once
You only die once
