

Autumn Leaves

From Dawn To Fall

We've all been victims of love
Falling down in agony
Seeing only paths of endless tragedy
Lying shattered on the floor
Trying to catch a glimpse of light
Held back by the darkness of night

You think the end is near
A friend will surely help you flee this misery
Escaping to be free
[You think the end is near
A friend will surely help you flee this misery
Escaping to be free]

Keep on holding on, keep on holding on to a friend
Keep on holding on, keep on holding on until the end

Why would you distract yourself
Indistinct and blurry thoughts
Wouldn't let you reanimate your soul
It's like being stuck in a mire
Descending deeper every day
Swaying over ruins of an unfought fray

You know the end is near
A friend is here to help you flee this misery
Escaping to be free
[You know the end is near
A friend is here to help you flee this misery
Escaping to be free]

Keep on holding on, keep on holding on to a friend
Keep on holding on, keep on holding on

Keep on holding on, keep on holding on to a friend
Keep on holding on to a friend
Keep on holding on, keep on holding on until the end
