Goodbye Waves

From First to Last

There's an ocean out my window It's puny and it's tears
There's an ocean out my window It's crashing in my head

Oh sea, you shelter You dance between my toes When I feel like I can't move forward You carry me like a father

Breathing is the hardest thing I do I'm not the only person in the room It's hard to mean, to feel like I'm not...
