Secrets Don't Make Friends

From First to Last

This place is a bloodbath And won't be taken alive We stand alone Under fictitious skies

You were always my enemy And carefully crafted my demise You were always my enemy And carefully crafted my demise

Our hearts beat strong Under fictitious skies You were always my enemy You suck the life out of me

Your words are deadly weapons Killing me, destroying me Your words are deadly weapons Scatter my brains across the wall

You were my compass
Leading me to nowhere fast
Promises were lonely roads
I followed you down like a map

You were always my enemy And carefully crafted my demise You were always my enemy And carefully crafted my demise

Our hearts beat strong under fictitious skies You were always my enemy You suck the life out of me

Your words are deadly weapons Killing me, destroying me Your words are deadly weapons Scatter my brains across the wall

Fuck you

Secrets don't make friends
Secrets don't make

Your words are deadly weapons Killing me, destroying me

Your words are deadly weapons
Killing me, destroying me
Your words are deadly weapons
Scatter my brains across the wall

Your words are deadly weapons Killing me, destroying me Your words are deadly weapons Scatter my brains across the wall
