

We Follow

From Indian Lakes

I took my time I took down every light as if they were mine
Our winds straight home I looked up every flight as if I could go somewhere

And if I never have to look in your eyes it'd be fine
And if I only wait to get out is to lose my mind
I leave it someday or I leave it anywhere for you to find

I took them bound I broke down every thought as if they were mine
Our wind straight home I told my family to stay and I begged them not to follow

And if I never have to go back inside it'd be fine
And if I only wait to get out is to lose my mind
I leave it someday or I leave it everywhere for you to find

And I guess my time is fading now
But I guess my time is against my own
And I guess my pride is running out
But I guess my pride is against my own
And I guess my pride is running out
But I guess my pride is against my own
And I guess my time is fading now
But I guess my time is against my own

If I can take it away without a choice or a say
If I can never see the sun out my window
If I can call in my sleep if I can no longer sleep
I'll say this quick to you
I swear that I'll be, I swear that I'll be good

If I was taken away before I knew who I was
And I was given a name among your daughters and sons
To be love just to love I think I heard that before
But I love them I do it so to be loved some more
I would've loved some more

I thought I knew but I don't
I thought I knew but I don't
I don't know anything at all
I thought I knew but I don't
I thought I knew but I don't
I don't know anything at all
I thought I knew but I don't
I thought I knew but I don't
I don't know anything at all
I thought I knew but I don't
I thought I knew but I don't
I don't know anything at all
