

My So-called Life

From Zero

Make your first impression brace yourself it's who you are Try to find yourself it takes some time don't be alarmed
A million questions fill your mind you feel unsatisfied But don't sit down it's time to figure out the reasons why that I Can't seem to find my way back home but I'm trying

This time I think I've gone too far
But I'm trying this time - is this really what you want to be
This time I'm trying

Paint a picture of a place that's deep inside your mind Look for answers to the questions and the reasons why I'm feeling happy and unsatisfied at the same time So light a cigarette and take a drink and you'll be fine but I

Can't seem to find my way back home
but I'm trying
This time I think I've gone too far
But I'm trying this time -
is this really what you want to be
This time I'm trying, this time

This time I think I've gone too far
And what have you got for me this time
Are you leaving me out to dry And where have you gone, my so-called life?
'Cause I can't find you anywhere

This time I must make some decisions
This time make or break Let lose this dead weight
No room for mistake you feel me
