I'm the one you're waiting for Yes I'm the one; yes I'm the one Who decides when times aren't right? Who's left out well I', left out

Don't try
Just leave it
It's all bitter change
Can't we stay the same and

Give it all back to fall Setting the course for an ever after Standing tall be my all Setting the course for an ever after

I want to be
I'll never walk alone
When time is on my side
What comes around goes around

In time, in time
She's the only time spent right
Let's talk it out
We'll talk it out

'Cause I'm the one you're waiting for Yes I'm the one yes I'm the one I don't believe it's right And all the answers will

Never keep me warm at night When I am by myself Back on the run Enraged with the other side

Deliver us all
From dreams that I want to hide
Back on the run
It's safe just to be alive

Consider the one that's left On the otherside Everything else that grabs When you're under

I'll always win alone let alone
Give it all back to fall
Standing tall be my all
Setting the course for an ever after

I'll never walk alone When time is on my side
