

there is nothing here i haven't seen i'm just waiting for my turn to leave there is nothing i haven't experienced and so little left to talk about there is nothing i haven't been been through i've stopped waiting for what will not come
there is nothing here i haven't seen
i will sink soon
i will sink
i will sink soon
i will sink
...soon
there is nothing more i need to learn i'm more than ready for my return i'm about to leave this (?doggie tree?) my visions do not frighten me i hid far from myself already entering a higher energy
i feel my forces abandoning me i see the lights growing gradually
i will sink soon
i will sink
i will sink soon
i will sink
i feel my forces abandoning me
i will sink soon
or will i soar?
