

A Lovely Mess

Front Porch Step

I'm not the man that I once was
But I'm changing everyday because
I want to find some one like you
And you've got eyes that can tear me down
But all they do is build me up
So hold my hand before my heart erupts

And darling I may not be everything you want
But I can give you all I have
I'm not the perfect man
But you are just so perfect and
I want to be the one that holds your hand

I'm sorry if I come off strong
And it could be that you're all wrong for me
But I just had to see
That you are broken and I am such a wreck
I think we'd make a lovely mess

And darling I may not be everything you want
But I can give you all I have
I'm not the perfect man
But you are just so perfect and
I want to be the one that holds your hand

So that we can wake up in a bed we call our own
I would buy you lots of flowers
And someday I'd build you're home
I would sing you Frank Sinatra
While we sway along and dance
This life of course could be all yours
If you just give me a chance

And darling I may not be everything you want
But I can give you all I have
I'm not the perfect man
But you are just so perfect and
I want to be the one that holds your hand

I'm not those men that made you cry
And I promise I will spend my life
Just trying to make you feel alive
Cause you are broken and I am such a wreck
I swear I love you until I'm dead
