Well painted passion You rightly expect Impersonation The dumbing down of love Jaded in anger Love underwhelms you No box of chocolates Whichever way you fall And if i tell you Lover alone without love What will happen Lover alone without love Will you listen Lover alone without love No no i'll get this I want to treat you You're still not famous and you haven't struck it rich Underachieving Cos no-one's receiving This tunnel vision Is turning out all wrong Music is worthless unless it can make a Complete stranger break down and cry And if I tell you Lover alone without love What will happen Lover alone without love Will you miss him? Love alone without love Without love Without love Without love
