

Circles of Frostbitten Ice

Frozen Dawn

Restless souls blow with black wings
Frozen winds of an endless night
Darkening the twilight sunlight

Triumphant awakes in her eternal chamber
Covered with ashes of lethargy gloom
Shattering the chains of carved time

Time stands still as she comes
The light fades away to obscurity
Unleashing.... circles of frostbitten ice.....

Grim and majestic raises the red moon
Between forgotten chants of cold
The Dark Lady invokes the cold souls

Obscure invocations of cursed beasts
Fragmented glyphs shaped into the stones
Black spells written on forbidden scrolls

The pale light banishes
Into an overwhelming night
As the darkness obliterates
The enlightend sky

Time stands still as she comes
The light fades away to obscurity
Ripping cold trails of mortuary stench
Into the empty entrails of the dusk
Time stands still as she comes
The light fades away to obscurity
Unleashing.... circles of frostbitten ice....

Overthrown by hordes of northern winds
The ivory tower succumbs
And the sun keels over the torn land

Inside the veils of the nether void
The ice rushes into forgotten dimensions
Crumbling the fragile dawn of the sun
