

Cold Souls

Frozen Dawn

The winter moon is rising
Awaking black ancient souls
Souls of an ancient era
Of everlasting gods

Crawling in the night
The unforgotten cryptic soul's ritual
Bring back to life
Black winged demons

Demons of black ivory horns
Twisted nails and thorny fangs
Not death nor alive
Damned for all time

Frozen signs in a monolith of ice
Glittering cold in the winter winds
Ancient runes, dark invocations
Burning black sun in the deep of the void

Cold death, come back
I pray for you, I belong to you

I will rise for you one more time
Oh!! You coldest souls

I will fight for you one more time
Oh!! You black majesty

I will fall for you one more time
Oh!! You coldest souls

I will die for you one more time
Oh!! You black majesty
