

Those of the Cursed Light

Frozen Dawn

Among the ancients gods I swear
Awakening hymns and black oaths
Those dwelling in darkness
Arise between the veils of the night

With iron fist will
I command the wretched souls
And rule the damned fate
Of those of the cursed light

On demon wings I ride
Across the blizzard winds
With mighty pride and strength
I lead the army of northern winds

Far beyond from abyssal voids
The cursed light was unleashed
Those dwelling in darkness
Arise in the deep of the night

Across the stormy seas
Over the highest mountains
I rule the doomed souls
Of those of the cursed light

Those of the cursed light
This was the light that blinded the sky's eyes
This is the light which burnt the sky's eyes
