

Almond Flowers

Frozen Plasma

I lost myself while lost in me,
I'm lost and as I long to be,
Lost as a candle in the day,
Lost as a snowflake in the sea

Don't love me but I try to find,
A spirit beautiful and bright,
Yet I am I who long to be,
Lost as a light is lost in light

Turn from me now but try to hear,
The muted laughter in the dew,
Of that one year of youth I had,
The only youth I ever knew

I lost myself while lost in me,
I'm lost and as I long to be,
Lost as a candle in the day,
Lost as a snowflake in the sea

Tonight the sky is bright with stars,
A hollow rumble from the sea,
An endless sea of almond flowers,
The wind is shaking them for me,
The shadows dancing on the ceiling,
So black and round obsessing me,
A perfect night to leave in silence,
If you were here you would agree

Tonight the sky is is bright with stars,
A hollow rumble from the sea,
An endless sea of almond flowers,
The wind is shaking them for me,
The shadows dancing on the ceiling,
So black and round obsessing me,
A perfect night to leave in silence,
If you were here you would agree

The shadows dancing on the ceiling,
So black and round obsessing me,
A perfect night to leave in silence,
