

Nothing

Fuel

My destiny called me
But I wound up right back here
'Cause it doesn't mean nothing
Nothing means nothing at all

I went chasing shadows till I thought I'd disappeared
But it doesn't mean nothing
Nothing means nothing at all
So if I throw up my hands

Would you say that nothing's wrong
It makes no difference man it's all just gonna fade
It doesn't matter anyway
I want to belong here

But I'm not sure here exists
'Cause it doesn't mean nothing
Nothing means nothing at all
I have young ambitions full of vinegar and piss

But it doesn't mean nothing
Nothing means nothing at all
So if I throw up my hands
Would you say that nothing's wrong

It makes no difference man it's all just gonna fade
It doesn't matter anyway
Maybe I'll just find a place where everything's so clear
Maybe I'll just blow this all away

So if I throw up my hands
Turn my back and walk away
It makes no difference man it's all just gonna fade
It doesn't matter anyway
It doesn't matter anyway...
