

Rising From Beneath

Fueled by Fire

Night fall break darkness hits and the time has come they will rise
the ascend from they're hellish graves living death spiritless beings will feast for blood they arrived
evil creatures stalk they're prey scent of death

lingers threw the midnight sky lust for blood unearthly legions hunt the land march to kill the scent of rotting flesh draws near hell on earth
condemned to a night in hell blood has spilled victims slaughtered as they meet the dead scream in agony

torn apart and ripped to shreds ragging torment
morbid corpses fest on flesh viscous attack
the death squad maims there victims of blood

RISING!
From beneath
THEY ARE RISING!
From Beneath

unholy terror
hell unleash the plagues of death endless torture
eternal existence of the living dead

RISING!
From beneath
THEY ARE RISING!
From Beneath
