

Within The Abyss

Fueled by Fire

Slaughtered the innocent and slaved the weak your horrible mind is now confined Convicted of murder under trial by fire no way out this misery Sentenced to death by a massive controller life on death row awaits you condemned to a death watch cell your judgment of death has just begun

Now!
you will face your fate
By your own hands
Within the abyss!

Locked up in a sinister dungeon never to rise from this abyss your mind starts to wither away eternal blackness touches your soul Slowly you start rotting in terror your frigid body becomes weak.
The chamber awaits as the keeper calls your judgment day has now come

now!
you will face your fate
By your own hands
Within the abyss!

At last the day has come the day to face your death walking beside the executioner shackled hearing his whispering commands

Arriving! To your final domain strapped down to the death machine left to die to your surprise you defy the death machine

Left to rot forever
scream to be released no one here to save you as the rats have a bloody feast!
