

Burning Age

Full Blown Chaos

Another day of breathing
Acrid and thick, I inhale
Feel it burn inside
When will the smoke clear

Seems like its been forever
Seen only death and disease
With every breath I'm dying
See my fate in from of me

There will be no dawn for man
Rotting minds have faded
Damned us to years of flame
Use to fear a life in hell

Now I live it everyday
There will be no dawn for man
Humanity has collapsed
This is the burning age

Never cease until we are ash
There will be no dawn for man
Another day of breathing
Every wake brings more decay

There will be no dawn for man
This is the burning age
Another day of breathing
Every wake brings more decay

There will be no dawn for man
This is the burning age
