

Flowing down the mountain
Many broken streams
Hand full of twisted thoughts
Bottle full of needs

Follow the sun down
Till I can't see you face
There was more to this
Than making holes in my life

There was more to this
Than making hole in my eyes
Always in the back of my mind
Always taking something

She was a lying mother
I couldn't make her see
That all of this ain't nothing
It's just a part of me

Follow the sun down
Till I can't see this place
There was more to this
Than making holes in my life

There was more to this
Than making hole in my eyes
I was pulling through
I was changing skin

The deeper the love you fool
The deeper the stain within
Always in the back of my mind
Always taking something

There was more to this
Than making holes in my life
There was more to this
Than making hole in my eyes

I was pulling through
I was changing Skin
The deeper the love you fool
The deeper the stain within

Always in the back of my mind
