

Black Trophy

Full Diesel

The biggest cheater the trophy is yours painted black it's oh so poor and after all the lucky loser gets it all and more and again you wake up bored

Damned, damned from the beginning a name written into the books of history damned, damned for centuries seek the truth to reveal

Into the same gray morning another night without a new score Nobody is knocking on your door
and again you wake up bored

Close your eyes from these lies and realize you live or die

A blessed child he was but not anymore Your luck has turned since that dawn Everybody knows it's not your fault anymore but guess who'll take it all when you fall
