

No Man's Land

Full Diesel

As you see, no regrets
All is over but it's not the end
I don't know I think I even don't care
But when I wake up at night I still see you my friend

If you ever need anything
Don't hesitate to ask anything

Ref: Walking alone in no man's land
Waiting for a blessing or a helping hand to drag me away
Stay, be ready to pay for your sins
Smooth as velvet it forces me back in

Can you feel the last heart beat
All choices have been made and there's no return
I don't know I think I even don't care
But when I wake up at night I feel like I'm dying

If you ever need anything
Don't hesitate to ask anything

Ref: Walking alone in no man's land
Waiting for a blessing or a helping hand to drag me away
Stay, be ready to pay for your sins
Smooth as velvet it forces me back in

If you ever need anything
Don't hesitate to ask anything
If you ever need anything

Walking alone in no man's land
Requesting for a helping hand
Walking alone in no man's land
Waiting for a blessing or a helping hand to drag me away
Stay be ready to pay for your sins
Smooth as velvet it forces me and...
Stay I'm ready to pay for my sins
Sweet as a kiss it drains my life from my lips
