

Walking the Dog

Fun.

Walking alone 'cause the night is dead.
Crossed my mind when I crossed the bridge.

Have you lost your mind,
And your wrist got bruised,
And you wanted better love
Well, it's sleeping in your bedroom.
Hold on,
Stay on my side,
Don't go.

If you could see me
Whoever I am.
It's not like a movie,
It's not all skin and bones.
So come on love
(come on, come one, come all and go)
Nah nah nah nah nah nah nah
I will not let you go.

Now I'm walking alone 'cause the night is dead.
My feet don't glide like they did back then,
When I called you up so we could shoot the moon.
These days I'm left to howl in tune.

Hearts do break
And I must admit
I've got a better set of chords,
So I might have been faking it.
Think I really only cried just once.

If you could see me
Whoever I am.
It's not like a movie,
It's not all skin and bones.
So come on love
(come on, come one, come all and go)
Nah nah nah nah nah nah nah
I will not let you go,
Nah nah nah nah nah nah nah
I will not let you go.

After all the shows,
After the boys of summer had gone
Amid all the confusion
These friends I've been losing
I always thought from the start
I'd be the one moving on.
I guess I'll never know
Where all the boys of summer will go
But I'll miss what me made
All the days were not wasted.
There are some things I may never know.

Have you lost your mind,
And your wrist got bruised
And you wanted better love

Well it's sleeping in your bedroom.
Hold on,
Stay on my side,
Don't go.

If you could see me
Whoever I am.
It's not like a movie,
It's not all skin and bones.
So come on love
(come on, come one, come all and go)
Nah nah nah nah nah nah nah
I will not let you go.

If you could see me
Whoever I am.
It's not like a movie,
It's not all skin and bones.
So come on love
(come on, come one, come all and go)
Nah nah nah nah nah nah nah
I will not let you go.
Nah nah nah nah nah nah nah
I will not let you go.
