

Dormant Hallucination

Funerarium

Skies open deep red
Over a woeful cemetery
The mausoleum's carnal altar
Entranced into the dark

Penetrate the tomb
Her apparition awaits
Constrain the lustful spectre
Into corporeal fornication

Obscured in lifeless pleasure
The sanctum swathed in secretions
Carnality and blood
Seep from cold marble

Macabre evil spirit
Release me from this life
Through a dark, dripping ossuary
Fog absorbs flesh and dissipates

Lost in a baleful aftermath
My subconscious now entangled
In a damned ghost's purgatory
The paradise of flesh
