

Perish Beneath

Funerarium

Into the coffin you are still alive
The sound of pounding nails
Is the last thing you hear
As it fills you with dread

Shut the vault forever
Beneath the black soils of fate
The pain unbearable
While you mercifully perish

The darkness complete
Cataleptic state
Abhorrent visions infest your subconscious
As you are lowered down into the grave

Your mind erupts in horror
A black eternity awaits before you
Succumb to insanity
Where the days shall pass like years

Banished to experience deaths domain
Still aware as the worms begin to feed
Mastication of your earthly remains

PERISH BENEATH

Into the coffin you are still alive
The sound of pounding nails
Is the last thing you hear
As it fills you with dread

Shut the vault forever
Beneath the black soils of fate
The pain unbearable
While you mercifully perish

The darkness complete
Cataleptic state
Abhorrent visions infest your subconscious
As you are lowered down into the grave
