

Nothing is original
Oh, it's all been done to death
Excitement levels at an all time low
Economy just takes a blow

We're left holding your mistakes
And if you think that stealing is acceptable
Would you steal from your friends?
Did your parents teach you nothing
Would you steal from your friends?

Would you steal from your friends?

Carry on, a soul without control in form with focus
I never wanted anything else
Yeah, speak my mind
But don't claim it's a crisis
Yes I speak my mind
Just don't claim it's a crisis

Just don't claim it's a crisis

And if you think that stealing is acceptable
Would you steal from your friends?
Did your parents teach you nothing
Would you steal from your friends?

I'm content with intimacy
Feel the struggle between you and me
And seeing your face up close
Is better than through a telescope

I'm content with intimacy
Feel the struggle between you and me
And seeing your face up close
Is better than through a telescope
Is better than through a telescope
Is better than through a telescope

Nothing is original
Because it's all been done to death
